THIRTEEN's NYC-ARTS Presents a Summer Festival of Arts in July

This month, NYC-ARTS will revisit some of its most compelling profiles of people and institutions in the New York City and the tri-state area arts and cultural scene.

On July 11, the program will feature a segment celebrating women in dance, including award-winning choreographer Camille A. Brown, critically-acclaimed choreographer Pam Tanowitz, and New York City Ballet principal dancer Ashley Bouder. Also featured this month are a profile on renowned photographer Joel Meyerowitz along with the exhibitions "T.C. Cannon: At the Edge of America" currently on view at the National Museum of the American Indian, "Hudson Rising" currently on view at the New-York Historical Society and "Made in New York City: The Business of Folk Art" currently on view at the American Folk Art Museum. The program also revisits The Noble Maritime Collection at the historic Sailors' Snug Harbor in Staten Island, NY.

NYC-ARTS, THIRTEEN's weekly arts and culture multi-platform showcase, brings arts lovers an all-access pass to the interesting, unusual and unique cultural offerings of the greater New York City region.

Co-hosted by New York Emmy Award winners Philippe de Montebello and Paula Zahn, NYC-ARTS showcases both world-renowned and local, community-based arts organizations.

See below for a full detailing of July's NYC-ARTS lineup.

The program airs on Thursday nights at 8 p.m. on THIRTEEN. Each episode is also available to stream on NYC-ARTS.org

the Friday following the broadcast. Encore presentations generally follow on Sundays at 12 noon on THIRTEEN; Tuesdays at 5:30 and 7:30 p.m. on WLIW21; Saturdays at 7 p.m. on NJTV. NYC-ARTS anchors a five hour wheel on the new ALL ARTS channel, seen daily at 5 a.m., 10 a.m. and 3 p.m. Beginning July 21, encore presentations on THIRTEEN will air on Sundays at 11 a.m.
