Great Performances: LA Phil 100
Fri 8th, 9 p.m.
SYMPHONIC SOUNDS

THIRTEEN IS ALIVE with the sound of music this month with Great Performances specials spotlighting the Los Angeles Philharmonic’s landmark birthday celebration, an exhilarating production of Leonard Bernstein’s Mass, and more.

Hailed by The New York Times as “the most important orchestra in America—period,” the Los Angeles Philharmonic celebrated its 100th birthday with a year-long festival of globe-spanning concerts, events, and new commissions. The Centennial season concluded on October 24, 2019 with a once-in-a-lifetime gala featuring three legendary LA Phil conductors—Zubin Mehta, Esa-Pekka Salonen, and current Music & Artistic Director Gustavo Dudamel.

Great Performances was there to capture this historic event, LA Phil 100 (Fri 8th, 9 p.m.), filmed at the Walt Disney Concert Hall in Los Angeles.

Highlights include Ravel’s “La Valse,” led by Conductor Emeritus Zubin Mehta. The eclectic program also includes Witold Lutoslawski’s “Symphony No. 4,” led by Conductor Laureate Esa-Pekka Salonen. Gustavo Dudamel brings his signature dramatic style to a suite from Stravinsky’s “Firebird.”

The spectacular grand finale showcases the three conductors simultaneously conducting the world premiere of Icelandic composer Daniel Bjarnason’s instrumental piece From Space I Saw Earth.

Next, enjoy a front-row seat to Bernstein Mass (Fri 15th, 9 p.m.), Ravinia Festival’s acclaimed production of Leonard Bernstein’s music theater masterpiece starring Tony-winning baritone Paulo Szot (South Pacific with Kelli O’Hara) and featuring the Chicago Symphony Orchestra. Baltimore Symphony Orchestra artistic director Marin Alsop conducts the production, filmed in July 2019 as part of the Ravinia Festival’s Leonard Bernstein Centennial.

Despite having just one named character, the Celebrant (performed by Szot), Mass has the dimensions of a Broadway extravaganza, featuring 245 people onstage. As the story unfolds, members of the Street Chorus find themselves in an existential quandary, wondering how they can believe in a God and a world that are seemingly blind to their plights.

Mass first aired on Great Performances during its 1973-74 season, marking the beginning of Bernstein’s storied association with the series. Another fun fact: it features lyrics by Tony-winning composer/lyricist Stephen Schwartz (Jesus Christ Superstar, Wicked).

Opera devotees won’t want to miss Wozzeck (Sun 3rd, 12 p.m.) on Great Performances at the Met. Peter Mattei stars in artist William Kentridge’s interpretation of Berg’s tragic opera set in an apocalyptic pre-World War I environment. Met music director Yannick Nézet-Séguin conducts.

Great Performances: LA Phil 100 and Bernstein Mass will be available to stream following each broadcast via the Great Performances website (pbs.org/gperf), or watch using the THIRTEEN Explore app (thirteen.org/explore). Join the conversation on social media using the hashtag #GreatPerformancesPBS.

Attention THIRTEEN Viewers: Over-The-Air Viewers, Rescan Your TV

In connection with the broadcast spectrum auction, the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) assigned THIRTEEN to a new broadcast frequency. Viewers who watch THIRTEEN on their TV using an antenna will be affected.

To continue watching THIRTEEN with a TV antenna, you must rescan your tuner or television. This transition, originally planned for April 30, has been rescheduled. Please visit thirteen.org for the new schedule.

If needed, contact the manufacturer for help. Cable and satellite viewers are not affected.

For more information, visit fcc.gov/TVrescan.
