American Masters: Walter Winchell: The Power of Gossip

GOSSIP

FROM YENTE THE MATCHMAKER in Fiddler on the Roof to Gladys Kravitz in Bewitched, who doesn’t love a colorful town gossip? Meet the latest addition to this list of iconic busy-bodies in The Trouble With Maggie Cole (Sun Oct 18th–Nov 22nd, 8 p.m.), premiering this month on THIRTEEN.

Dawn French (The Vicar of Dibley, French and Saunders) stars as the titular character in this six-part comedy-drama about idle village gossip gone awry in a picturesque fishing village called Thurlbury. The self-appointed gossip goes by Maggie Cole, who fancies herself a local celebrity. When she unwittingly spills secrets in an interview, she unwittingly spills the town’s secrets—adultery, promiscuity, mob connections, and more.

With the town reeling from “Radiogate,” Maggie is desperate to make amends, especially with her best friend Jill, a teacher whose promotion is jeopardized by Maggie’s scandalous interview. There’s a fine line between gossip and truth, but as Jill says, “What goes around comes around.”

For historical perspective on gossip, American Masters presents Walter Winchell: The Power of Gossip (Tue 20th, 9 p.m.). Stanley Tucci is the voice of the legendary newspaper columnist, radio commentator and television personality who pioneered the fast-paced, gossip-driven, politically charged journalism that dominates today.

“Walter Winchell understood that gossip was a way to take down the mighty and raise up the lowborn,” Neal Gabler, author of Winchell: Gossip, Power, and the Culture of Celebrity, says in the film. Winchell was among the first journalists to denounce the Nazis in the 1930s. At his peak, his audience was 50 million. He could make or break careers as he held court at Table 50 at The Stork Club, while celebrity publicists swarmed, trying to get their clients’ names in his famous “On Broadway” column.

His column was peppered with catchy Winchellisms. “Making whoopee” was having sex. “Adam and Eveing it” meant having sex. “Adam and Eveing it” meant having sex. “Making whoopee” was having sex. “Adam and Eveing it” meant having sex. “Adam and Eveing it” meant having sex. “Making whoopee” was having sex. “Adam and Eveing it” meant having sex. “Making whoopee” was having sex. “Adam and Eveing it” meant having sex. “Making whoopee” was having sex. “Adam and Eveing it” meant having sex. “Making whoopee” was having sex. “Adam and Eveing it” meant having sex. “Making whoopee” was having sex. “Adam and Eveing it” meant having sex. “Making whoopee” was having sex.

Over 50 years later, Winchell’s influence on journalism is more robust than ever. “You see political performers guest-hosting Saturday Night Live,” says cultural historian Thomas Doherty. “The dividing line between entertainment and politics was shattered by Winchell in the ‘30s.”

Binge-watch all six episodes of The Trouble With Maggie Cole starting this month on THIRTEEN Passport (thirteen.org/passport), our Members-only, on-demand library of public television programming.

Walter Winchell: The Power of Gossip will be available to stream following the broadcast via the American Masters website (pbs.org/americamasters) and the THIRTEEN Explore app (thirteen.org/explore). Join the conversation on social media using the hashtag #AmericanMastersPBS.
Latino Vote—Dispatches From the Battleground

Tue 6th, 9 p.m.

WITH ELECTION DAY a month away, this VOCES special offers an inside look at the high-stakes effort to get out the Latino vote. Political candidates are focused on maximizing turnout and support from Latinos, poised to be the largest non-white voting bloc. Told through dispatches from the battleground states of Nevada, Texas, Florida, and Pennsylvania, the film follows grassroots organizers, community leaders, and political operatives working to mobilize Latino voters, from left-leaning progressives to Latino evangelicals.

Classic Albums: John Lennon—Plastic Ono Band

Thu 8th, 9 p.m.

IN 1970, John Lennon released _Plastic Ono Band_, his first post-Beatles album. Widely regarded as one of his finest and drawn from Lennon’s traumatic early life, it features some of his most personal songs, written while he and Yoko Ono were undergoing primal therapy with renowned psychotherapist Dr. Arthur Janov in California. Interviews with Yoko Ono, Ringo Starr, and bassist Klaus Voormann, archival footage, and recorded interviews with Lennon shed light on this iconic album.

Tue 13th, 9 p.m.

THIS DOCUMENTARY BY historian Dr. Gretchen Sorin and director Ric Burns chronicles the history of African Americans on the road from the 1930s to the 1960s, and beyond. Featuring archival materials, oral histories, and scholarly insights, it also delves deeply into the history of The Green Book, the guide first published in 1936 that offered travel tips for African Americans driving, including safe places to stop, dine and rest—and places to avoid given the potential for racially motivated violence.

Nature: Australian Bushfire Rescue
Wed 28th, 8 p.m. • pbs.org/nature

AN ESTIMATED ONE BILLION ANIMALS died in the horrific Australian bushfires last year. Meet the people who rescued and are caring for the animal survivors of these devastating bushfires. Witness the rescue of an orphan wombat, the treatment of one of Australia’s deadliest snakes, and a citizen who turned her home into an animal sanctuary. Nature also follows koalas, kangaroos, and other iconic species as they face hurdles to recover from trauma and return to the wild.
