RITA MORENO:

JUST A GIRL WHO
DECIDED TO GO FOR IT

PREMIERING ON AMERICAN MASTERS
TUE 5TH, 9 PM

STAR POWER

American Masters—Rita Moreno:
Just a Girl Who Decided to Go For It
Tue 5th, 9 p.m. • pbs.org/ritamoreno

OVER A CAREER spanning more than 70 years, Rita Moreno defied her humble upbringing and relentless racism to become one of a select group who has won Emmy, Grammy, Oscar, and Tony Awards. Rita Moreno: Just a Girl Who Decided to Go For It, premiering on American Masters in honor of Hispanic Heritage Month, explores Moreno's path to stardom, revealing her talent and resilience as she broke barriers and paved the way for new generations of artists.

Moreno spoke with THIRTEEN about the film, which includes interviews with Norman Lear and Lin-Manuel Miranda, who are also executive producers.

Q: Did you learn anything surprising about yourself after watching the film?

A: I was surprised by my willingness to share some very, very personal stuff. There were some difficult questions asked of me, but I promised myself that I would be as truthful as possible. I'm also amazed by how relevant and timely the film is. "This is not just the story of Rita Moreno, the actress," my wonderful director Mariem Pérez Riera has said. "It's the story of every woman trying to assert herself in a world ruled by men."

Q: What was it like to receive the 1962 Oscar for your performance in West Side Story and make history as the first Latina to win an Academy Award?

A: It was an incredible honor. The true heartbreak came when I couldn't get a job afterwards. They kept offering me gang movies. It broke my heart.

Q: What was it like working on Steven Spielberg's remake?

A: It was a very emotional experience. It was emotional meeting the new Anita, Ariana DeBose, who is marvelous in the movie. It was emotional watching these talented young dancers doing Justin Peck's gorgeous choreography in rehearsals. I just adored "the kids," as I call them. Every day at lunch, they'd gather around me and ask questions, which I was more than happy to answer. It was great fun and very uplifting.

Q: At the Kennedy Center Honors, the actress Gina Rodriguez presented a "love letter" to you, thanking you for being her inspiration. If you could write a love letter to Rita Moreno, what would it say?

A: I would say, "Good for you, girl! You achieved much of what you needed and wanted." Notice how I didn't say I achieved everything I set out to do? I'm not done yet!

AMERICAN MASTERS— BECOMING HELEN KELLER

Tue 19th, 9 p.m. • pbs.org/americanmasters

THIS NEW DOCUMENTARY, premiering on American Masters in honor of National Disability Employment Awareness Month, examines the complex life and legacy of Helen Keller: author, activist, lecturer, force for disability rights, and human rights pioneer. The film explores how Keller, who was Deaf and Blind, used her celebrity to advocate for change as a champion of rights for the disabled, women, and those in poverty, and how she spoke out for civil rights at great cost. With rarely seen photographs, film clips, and performances of her writing by Cherry Jones and Alexandria Wailes, it explores Keller's full life, revealing social obstacles she regularly encountered, progressive reforms she helped achieve, and controversial aspects of her life and legacy. The film includes ASL, closed captioning, and audio description for our Deaf, Blind and DeafBlind audiences. Tune in or stream at pbs.org/americanmasters and the THIRTEEN app (thirteen.org/anywhere).
