It’s hard to believe that 20 years have passed since the September 11 terrorist attacks. THIRTEEN commemorates the 20th anniversary of this devastating event with programs of hope and healing, remembrance and reflection, honoring the heroes, victims, and resilient spirit of New Yorkers.

Frontline: America After 9/11 (Tue 7th, 9 p.m.) investigates how America’s response to 9/11 reshaped our world and our democracy. From wars in Afghanistan and Iraq to torture, secret prisons, domestic surveillance, and covert operations, the film reveals the secret history of two decades defined by what happened on that fateful Tuesday in September.

Within days of 9/11, the NYC Department of Design and Construction was tasked with clearing 1.8 million tons of debris from Ground Zero. Twenty years later, employees who still work for this relatively unknown agency tell their story in NYC DDC 9/11 (Fri 10th, 9 p.m.).

The sights, smells, and demands of the job still haunt them. Their success in getting it done and bringing back their city remains their greatest achievement.

Chief: The Heroic Story of Bill Feehan (Fri 10th, 9:30 p.m.) tells the story of the beloved FDNY fire chief who died in the line of duty at his command station on 9/11 when the south tower of the World Trade Center collapsed. The son of a firefighter and the father of another, it was said that he knew the location of every fire hydrant in New York City. Feehan joined the FDNY in 1959 as a member of Ladder Company 3. When he was named acting commissioner in 1991, he became the first person to have held every possible position in the FDNY.

9/11’s Unsettled Dust (Fri 10th, 10 p.m.) examines the massive environmental and public health crisis caused by 9/11—and the government’s failure to respond to it. The film chronicles the epic battle fought by 9/11 responders and survivors for long-term healthcare and compensation.

Our ALL ARTS channel (allarts.org; see channel list on p. 12) will also feature an evening of 9/11 specials including Rescue, Recover & Healing (Fri 10th, 8 p.m.); America in Healing at the Riverside Church (Fri 10th, 8:30 p.m.); Snohetta at Ground Zero (Fri 10th, 10 p.m.); and In Our City: New Yorkers Remember September 11th (Fri 10th, 11 p.m.).
UNIVERSALLY REGARDED AS one of the greatest athletes of the 20th century, Muhammad Ali captivated fans with his mesmerizing combination of speed, grace, and power in the ring, and charm and playful boasting outside of it. At the height of his fame, he challenged Americans’ racial prejudices, religious biases, and notions about the roles celebrities and athletes play in our society, and inspired people all over the world with his message of pride and self-affirmation.

Acclaimed filmmaker Ken Burns explores the life of the legendary three-time heavyweight boxing champion in Muhammad Ali, a new four-part documentary series.

Drawing from an extraordinary trove of archival footage and photographs, the series details the story of the athlete who called himself “the greatest of all time” and competed in some of the most dramatic, widely viewed sporting events ever, including “The Fight of the Century” (1971) and “The Thrilla in Manila” (1975) against his great rival Joe Frazier, and “The Rumble in the Jungle” (1974), in which he defeated George Foreman to regain the heavyweight title that was stripped from him seven years earlier.

The series, written and co-directed by Sarah Burns and David McMahon, captures Ali’s principled resistance to the Vietnam War—which led to his a three-and-a-half-year banishment from boxing—his commitment to his Muslim faith, and his complex relationships with Elijah Muhammad and Malcolm X, who profoundly shaped his life and worldview. The film also includes moving footage of Ali, his hands trembling from Parkinson’s Disease, lighting the torch in a surprise appearance at the 1996 Olympics in Atlanta.
