Outdoor Adventures

HUMAN FOOTPRINT
PREMIERES WED 5TH, 9 P.M.
THE BRIGHT, BLAZING MONTH of July is the perfect time to enjoy the great outdoors. Looking for inspiration as you plan your summer adventures? We’ve got you covered with programs that celebrate the breathtaking beauty of the great outdoors and spotlight America’s diverse regions, cultures, and storytellers.

Human Footprint (Wed Jul 5th-Aug 9th, 9 p.m.), a six-part series hosted by biologist and Princeton University professor Shane Campbell-Staton (pictured on this month’s cover at a sheep ranch in Wyoming), journeys across America to understand all the ways humans have transformed the planet. Part science series and part travel show, it takes viewers from farms to restaurants, from rain forests to New York City sewers, following Campbell as he meets eclectic characters, participates in enlightening adventures, and discovers opportunities to help us reshape the planet.

Next, join Miriam Margolyes (Call The Midwife; Harry Potter) and Alan Cumming (Great Performances: Movies for Grownups Awards With AARP the Magazine; Masterpiece Mystery) for Season 2 of Miriam and Alan: Lost in Scotland (Sat July 15th-Aug 5th, 7 p.m.). Over the course of four episodes, the entertaining duo rediscovers more of their Scottish roots and embarks on an epic road trip in America that takes them to Los Angeles, Palm Springs, and Las Vegas. Highlights include a boat trip on the Isle of Skye and drag bingo in Palm Springs.

Southern Storytellers (Tue Jul 18th-Aug 1st, 9 p.m.) travels through the American South to meet some of the region’s most notable creatives: Jesamyn Ward, Lyle Lovett, Mary Steenburgen, and more.

A Capitol Fourth (Tue 4th, 8 p.m.) puts viewers front and center for America’s biggest birthday party, with the nation’s most spectacular fireworks display lighting up the iconic D.C. skyline. Enjoy performances by top stars from pop, country, R&B, classical, and Broadway, featuring the National Symphony Orchestra under the direction of conductor Jack Everly.

And for the younger set, Camp TV (weekdays at 12 p.m., beginning Mon 3rd) returns for a fourth season with 10 all-new episodes led by brand-new counselor Zing. Each episode is packed with engaging arts and crafts, science activities, storytimes, animal encounters, and more — everything kids ages 5 to 9 love about summer camp! Kids will learn about coding from a kid expert in Kid Inventor Day and “dive” under the sea with feathered friends in Penguin Day. Carnegie Hall, San Diego Zoo Wildlife Alliance, and Bedtime Math are among the more than 20 organizations contributing content. Visit camptv.org for hundreds of full episodes, clips, activity guides, bonus material, and more.
